

INSTINCT BIO TECHNICAL COMPANY HOLDINGS INC.

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Adopted: 23 July, 2026

Instinct Bio Technical Company Holdings Inc. (the “Company”), has adopted this policy to encourage (each of the following referred to as a “Reporting Person”) (a) employees, officers and directors of the Company, (b) employees, of the Company’s subsidiaries and other affiliates whose financial information is included in the Company’s consolidated financial statements, and (c) employees of any other Company-affiliated entity which enters into contractual relationships with the Company to report to responsible persons possible (i) violations of law, including the securities laws, (ii) accounting irregularities, and (iii) other suspected wrongdoing, including their own, which in any way may affect the Company or its assets. The goal of this policy is to discourage illegal activity and business conduct that damages the Company’s good name, business interests, and its relationships with officers and directors, shareholders, customers, suppliers, and the community at large. While the Company does not encourage frivolous complaints, it does want to encourage Reporting Persons who know of a Harmful Violation (defined below) or potentially what is reasonably believed to be a Harmful Violation, to contact a representative of the Company through one of the methods contained in this policy. A “Harmful Violation” includes the following:

1. violations of law which in any way may affect the Company or its assets, including any rule or regulation of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), federal laws related to fraud against the shareholders of the Company, and the laws and regulations of any jurisdiction in which the Company operates;
2. fraud or deliberate error in the preparation, evaluation, review, or audit of any of the Company’s financial statements;
3. fraud or deliberate error in the recording and maintaining of the Company’s financial records;
4. deficiencies in or noncompliance with the Company’s internal accounting controls;
5. misrepresentation or false statement to or by a senior officer or accountant regarding a matter contained in the Company’s financial records, financial reports, or audit reports;
6. deviation from full and fair reporting of the Company’s financial condition;
7. any other matter that, in the good faith belief of any Reporting Person, could cause harm to the business or public reputation of the Company;
8. any attempt to conceal a potential Harmful Violation or to conceal evidence of a potential Harmful Violation; or

9. any retaliation for any report, complaint, allegation, or other disclosure made pursuant to this policy (a “Disclosure”).

1. Purpose of the Policy

The Company has adopted this policy to:

- a) set forth the procedures established by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company for:
 - i) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and
 - ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by Reporting Persons of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters;
- b) cause Harmful Violations to be disclosed before they can disrupt the business or operations of the Company, or lead to serious loss;
- c) promote a climate of accountability; and
- d) ensure that no Reporting Person should feel at a disadvantage in raising legitimate concerns.

This policy provides a means whereby a Reporting Person can safely raise, internally and at a higher level, serious concerns and disclose information that the Reporting Person believes in good faith is or could cause a Harmful Violation. This policy does not apply to all grievances, such as those related to terms of employment or those concerns that are specifically addressed by existing policies of the Company relating to discriminatory harassment, and any such other grievances not specifically covered by this policy shall be handled in the manner stated in such other existing policies.

2. Reporting Persons Protected

This policy and the related procedures offer protection from retaliation to a Reporting Person, who makes any Disclosure with respect to matters that are, or could reasonably give rise to, Harmful Violations, provided the Disclosure is made:

- In good faith (as defined below);
- In the reasonable belief of the individual making the Disclosure that the conduct or matter covered by the Disclosure could give rise to or has resulted in a Harmful Violation; and
- Pursuant to the procedures contained below.

No complaint that satisfies these conditions shall result in any retaliation or threat of retaliation against the Reporting Person by the Company or any director, officer, employee, contractor, subcontractor, or agent of the Company. Any acts of retaliation against a Reporting Person shall be treated by the Company as a serious violation of Company policy and could result in discharge.

Accordingly, any Reporting Person who, in good faith, makes a Disclosure pursuant to this policy with respect to a Harmful Violation or potential Harmful Violation shall be protected from any retaliation by the Company. “Good faith” as used herein means that the Reporting Person has a reasonably held belief that the Disclosure made by the Reporting Person is true and has not been made for personal gain, for malicious or frivolous reasons, or for any ulterior motive.

Any Reporting Person who feels that he or she has been subjected to retaliation in violation of this policy should immediately report such behavior in accordance with the procedures set forth in this policy.

The Company notes that the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act”) provides certain legal protection to employees who provide information in investigations, including internal investigations into certain types of violations of the securities laws and regulations or who file proceedings relating to similar violations. Under these laws, the Company and its officers, directors, employees, contractors, subcontractors, and agents are prohibited from discharging, demoting, suspending, threatening, harassing, or in any other manner discriminating against an employee in connection with the terms and conditions of his or her employment because of any lawful act done by such employee to provide information, cause information to be provided, or otherwise assist an investigation regarding conduct which such employee reasonably believes constitutes a violation of any rule of the SEC or any other provision of federal law relating to fraud against the shareholders of the Company.

3. Confidentiality of Disclosure

The Company will use its best efforts to treat all Disclosures by Reporting Persons as confidential and privileged to the fullest extent permitted by law so long as maintaining such confidentiality and privilege is compatible with a fair investigation. The Company will exercise particular care to keep confidential the identity of any Reporting Person making a Disclosure under this procedure until a formal investigation is undertaken. Thereafter, the identity of the Reporting Person making the Disclosure may be kept confidential, if requested, unless (a) such confidentiality is incompatible with a fair investigation, (b) there is an overriding reason for identifying or otherwise disclosing the identity of the Reporting Person, or (c) such disclosure is required by law. In any such instance, the Reporting Person making the Disclosure will be so informed in advance of the Reporting Person being identified with the Disclosure. Where disciplinary proceedings are invoked against any individual following a Disclosure under this procedure, the Company will normally require the name of the Reporting Person making the Disclosure to be disclosed to the person subject to such proceedings. In addition, the person making the Disclosure confidentially should be advised that his or her identity will be disclosed if, after the investigation, it is reasonably determined that the Disclosure was made maliciously or recklessly.

While the Company encourages individuals to put their name to any Disclosure they make, any Reporting Person may make an anonymous Disclosure. In responding to an anonymous Disclosure, the Company will pay due regard to fairness to any individual named in the Disclosure, the seriousness of the issue raised, the credibility of the information or allegations in the Disclosure, and the prospects of an effective investigation and discovery of evidence.

Investigations will be conducted as quickly as possible, taking into account the nature and complexity of the Disclosure and the issues raised therein.

4. Unsubstantiated Allegations

If a Reporting Person makes a Disclosure in good faith pursuant to this policy and any facts alleged are not confirmed by subsequent investigation, no action will be taken against the Reporting Person. In making a Disclosure, all individuals should exercise due care to ensure the accuracy of the information disclosed. Reporting Persons making a Disclosure that is determined to be without substance and to have been made for personal gain or for malicious or frivolous reasons will not be protected by this policy.

Where alleged facts disclosed pursuant to this policy are not substantiated, the conclusions of the investigation will be made known both to the Reporting Person who made the Disclosure and to the person(s) against whom any allegation was made in the Disclosure.

5. Follow-Up

A detailed report of all substantive Disclosures and any subsequent actions taken in response thereto will be made to the Audit Committee in instances where the Disclosure relates to an issue or matter within its purview. In all other cases, a summary report will be made to the Audit Committee. The conclusion of any investigation will be communicated to the person or persons against whom the Disclosure is made and to the Reporting Person.
